Accommodation rates

Accommodation for all teams must be booked through the Organizing Committee.

The Holy See holds its quarterly Jubilee (Holy Year) in 2025: over 100 million pilgrims are expected in Rome throughout the year, meaning the costs for accommodations will likely be significantly higher if you don't book through the Organizing Committee.

Affiliated rates include:

- accommodation in three-star hotel in single, double or (if available) triple rooms;
- full board service;
- private shuttle to/from the venue at established times.

Registration fees for injured / no show athletes cannot be refunded.

Registration fees for divers added in the Final Entry Form shall be paid accordingly.

Terms and Conditions / Personal Data used under the GDPR

By submitting the official forms, you agree and consent:

- a) to the provided personal data being processed, collected, used and/or retained by the organizing committee, its members and representatives for any competition purposes;
- b) to any media depicting the participating athletes and staff members to be displayed, collected, used and/or retained by the organizing committee, its members and representatives, the official websites and social networks and any authorized media operators for promotional purposes.

Competition Schedule

A preliminary competition schedule will be released in late Winter.

Please note that the diving schedule may be changed at the discretion of the referee judge and/or the organizing committee.

Whenever in any event there would be five or fewer registered divers, the organizing committee may join the boys' and girls' events for that age group.

Whenever in any springboard event there would be a high number of registered divers, the organizing committee may carry out the two springboard events in the allotted session at the same time.

A proper warm-up time is guaranteed before each event, guaranteed at least for the registered athletes for that event.
